The second Madison Heights event went very well. Weather was very pleasant for the 14 competitive riders and the two hippie type recreational riders who attended.

The lines seemed very difficult for the advanced and expert riders, but even though they were given the option, none modified the section lines. I guess that's what separates the above average from the rest of us in trials riding.....

The smiles were bigger and the points were lower in the Sportsman class, so the lines must have been easier.

The below average riders (:-) Just kidding!) had the biggest smiles. What they lacked in riding skill, they made up for in determination to have a good time. My wife was observing, and she said that class obviously had the most fun. Although Hobbs was heard to complain once "Where's the challenge, Ed?" Not to worry Kevin, I already gave Pate the message..... Kudos for that winning attitude!

Thanks to all who attended. Even the hippie type non-conformist dudes.
